Olivia Trice

“Thank you for this scholarship; I am simply honored. This scholarship will assist me on my endeavors of becoming a filmmaker.”

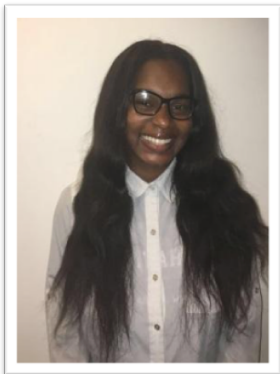

Quonetta Jones

“There aren’t many minority women in the field of computer engineering. I hope that eventually I can start an organization to help empower women (all women) to work and stay in the field.”

Anu Omole

“Once I receive my two undergraduate degrees, I want to go to law school, pass the bar exam, and become a child advocate lawyer, so that I can protect the restricted and unrecognizable rights children have, which is my ultimate goal.”
